

Community Alliance Programs

Please accept this application for annual participation in one of the Iowa League of Cities Community Alliance Programs. It is understood that in return for our support of local government in Iowa, we are entitled to receive the benefits offered for the program. Acceptance as a Community Alliance Program does not constitute, nor imply, an endorsement of our products and/or services by the League, its members, officers or staff. After initial acceptance by the League Executive Board, you will be invoiced annually for renewal dues. All materials will be mailed to the primary contact listed.

Associate and Partner applications will be brought before the Executive Board at its next regular meeting. All CAP invoices will be prorated to coincide with a July-June renewal period. This will include the first partial year and the following year. Upon approval you will be invoiced, sent a packet and subscriptions. Your participation will not be active until payment is made. If you do not receive your packet, contact the League office at (515) 244-7282. You will automatically be invoiced for renewal dues prior to your renewal date. Partners will be reviewed by the Executive Board each November and benefits will run July - June. A maximum of 20 Partners will be accepted with a limit of 5 companies per industry.
